Knockey Appears In Two-Night Run Of Anderson Play

Tickets on Sale at Lisner Box Office
Sparks Names Cast for "Elizabeth";

• AS THEIR LAST PRODUCTION of the year, Cue and Curtain will present Maxwell Anderson's "Elizabeth, the Queen" two evenings, April 27 and 28, Floyd L. Sparks, director, announced.

Business Manager announced that season ticket holders who were unable to gain admittance to "Roberta" due to the capacity crowd, will be able to use both tickets Nos. 3 and 4 for this production. Mail and telephone orders for seats may be made now.

Roles which have already been cast include those of Elizabeth and Essex, which will be played by Cay Knockey, formerly of Catholic University Players, and Frank Falkenhainer, formerly of the St. Louis Municipal Theater. Since her debut with the University drama group, Miss Knockey has starred in "Nine Girls" and "Night Must Fall." Falkenhainer has appeared in the last three Cue and Curtain plays.

Sir Walter Raleigh will be played by Mervin Martin, Cue and Curtain newcomer. Lt. Bob Holmes, of "Night Must Fall" and "Roberta" fame, will portray Lord Cecil. Lord Burghly and Sir Francis Bacon will be played by Jack Sweeney, last seen in "Night Must Fall" and "Roberta," and Bill McClellan, who is to be remembered for his excellent voice in "Roberta." John Mitchell and Larry Strickland have been cast as Captains Armin and Marvell. Both made their most recent appearance in "Roberta."

The part of the Fool will be portrayed by Don Balfour, whose last appearance with the group was in "... and the Home of the Brave." The second female lead has been given to Phyllis Westwood, who was also seen in the first production of the season.

Orchesis to Give Dance Program

• ORCHESIS, women's modern dance group at the University, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Burnier, women's Physical Education instructor, is scheduled to present a dance program April 13, at 8:30 p.m., in Lisner Auditorium. This performance is the fourth of the series sponsored by the Alumni Association. Admission is free, and all visitors are invited.

Orchesis includes the three different dance groups, the "top" group (or most advanced); the second group, and the junior dance group. Miss Burnier will also be featured in the program.

Committee Meets Tomorrow On Candidates' Qualifications

• JIMMY HUDDLESTON, chairman of the Qualifications Committee, stated Saturday that last Wednesday's meeting of the committee has been declared unconstitutional, and consequently any results thereof have been cancelled.

Chairman Huddleston said that the Qualifications Committee will meet Wednesday, April 4, at 8 p.m., in Building D, Room 301. The Qualifications Committee, according to the Student Council Constitution shall "consist of the president and secretary of the following organizations: The Engineers' Council, the Student Bar Association, the Interfraternity Council, the Pan Hellenic Council, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Mortar Board."

These officers should be present and all shall sit in at the meeting and discussions, even though some officers are candidates for office.

The reason for last Wednesday's meeting being declared unconstitutional by the Student

Yeager Schedules Speaking Contest Tuesday, April 24

W. HAYES YEAGER

• DR. W. HAYES YEAGER, Depew Professor of Public Speaking, announced that the Isaac Davis Public Speaking Contest will be held on Tuesday, April 24, time and place to be decided later.

Founded in 1849 by the Honorable Isaac Davis of Massachusetts, the contest is open to seniors only. Prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be awarded to the three best speakers. Speech manuscripts must be deposited in the Public Speaking Office, basement of Lisner Auditorium, before 5 p.m. Friday, April 20. Speeches must be limited to eight minutes' length.

Former winners of the contest include the Hon. Robert E. Freer, Federal Trade Commission; Dean Elizabeth Peet of Gallaudet College; Dean Elmer L. Kayser of the University, and Theodore Noyes, publisher of the Washington Evening Star.

'46 Annual Staff Wins Approval

Staff Now Waits
Faculty Decision
On Budget Proposal

• PRESIDENT MARVIN approved the 1945-46 Cherry Tree staff, proposed by Editor Margaret Lynn on February 23, in a note that reached Professor Ernest S. Shepard, chairman of the committee on publications, last Monday.

Felicia Miller will be new editor-in-chief. Staff members are: Business Manager, Dorothy Snyder; Associate Editors, Herbert Halberstadt, Lois Lord and Elaine Smith; Circulation Manager, Elizabeth Wells, and Advertising Manager, Barbara Hanby.

In addition, there are Photographic Editors, Allen Rubenstein and Betty Thompson; Organization Editor, Barbara Borst; Seniors Editor, Dolores Lancaster, and Art Editor, Jacqueline Perry.

This approval applies only to the staff and not the budget, which was included in the annual Student Council budget presented to the comptroller a few weeks ago.

Editor Lynn's February letter of recommendation requested the prompt approval of the proposed staff so that work on the 1945-46 Cherry Tree could be started this year, thus giving the staff eleven instead of three months in which to make and complete its plans. Photographs can be taken now to cover all the highlights of the winter and summer as well as the fall months.

Dr. Maurice Harold Irvine, assistant professor of English, has indicated his willingness to continue as advisor, Margaret Lynn added.

At a recent meeting of this year's staff it was decided, as a result of the large student request, to sell organization and individual Cherry Tree pictures. They will go on sale at nominal prices sometime in April.

A letter of commendation was read from the Student Council, expressing its appreciation for the excellent job done by the staff in meeting schedules.

This is the first time in at least two years that the Cherry Tree staff was approved before late in the fall term.

All-University Sing Offers Twin Cups To Winning Groups

13 Organizations to Compete Friday
At Auditorium In Revived Music Feast

• FRIDAY, APRIL 6, at 8:30 p. m., is the date, and Lisner Auditorium, the place, scheduled for this year's All-University Sing.

Social Chairman of the Student Council, Alice Rebert, has announced that the following organizations will participate: Alpha Delta Pi, Chi Omega, Delta Zeta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Sigma Sigma, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Zeta Tau Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Hillel Foundation, and the Veterans Club.

Nation-Wide Drive Benefits Students Of Government

• ANNUAL University Cherry Blossom Drive will run April 11 through April 13, Mary Bagby, chairman, announced. This nationwide drive is sponsored by the Educational Foundation of the National League of Masonic Clubs, and the funds collected provide scholarships for foreign service majors in the University School of Government.

In 1942, these scholarships were suspended for the duration. Scholarship students who entered service prior to graduation, however, may complete their courses after the war. This includes Robert L. Thompson, Oscar F. Noss, Robert A. Campbell and N. S. Hendrickson.

Here at the University the drive will center around inter-sorority competition. A cup will be presented to the winners at the Pan-Hellenic Prom, April 14. Should Alpha Delta Pi, winners for the past two years, win again, the cup will remain in their possession permanently.

Every campus in the United States which has a Masonic club among the faculty sponsors a local Cherry Blossom Drive. In past years, more than $40,000 has been collected for the benefit of the University.

Strong Hall Girls Help Plan Menus

• COMPLAINTS about variety of food at the Faculty Club have declined notably in the past two or three weeks, since the management has undertaken a policy of asking for menus from the Strong Hall girls.

This is the latest phase in the Meals Controversy which rocked Strong Hall last fall and was not settled until this semester when President Marvin declared that, due to the war, nothing could be done.

Student Life Committee Adds New Constitution Amendments

LOIS SMITH

• AMENDMENTS to the Student Council Constitution proposed two weeks ago were approved by the Student Life Committee in a meeting held March 27, and have now been added to the Constitution.

The most important of the new

Although termed "an All-University Sing," in actuality there will be two separate contests—one for men's groups, another for women's. The Student Council, sponsor of the affair, has obtained twin cups which will be awarded the winning organizations.

Hillel, the only mixed group which expressed interest in the affair, will sing, though obviously it will not compete with the other groups.

Judges for the affair will be Chester Elwood Leese and John Russell Mason from the Committee on Musical Organizations here at the University, and Justin Laurie, talented and well-known choir director at the Foundry Methodist Church.

Dr. Robert Harmon, Director of the University Glee Clubs, will lead the club in a special number while the judges deliberate on the winners.

Sectional seating arrangements are being planned, and each organization participating will be informed of the proper place in the auditorium for their singers.

Nessell Tightens Columbian House Rules, Regulations

• BECAUSE OF IMPROPER use, the Columbian House at 21st and G Streets, Northwest, was closed as of yesterday and can be used only by making reservations in the Business Office, first floor of Corcoran Hall, Fred E. Nessell, Business Manager, stated last night.

As usual, the second floor of Columbian House will be open to girls during the day, under the supervision of Miss Virginia Kirkbride, Director of Personnel Guidance.

Anyone desiring to use Columbian House for evening functions must also make reservations as stated above. In keeping with the brown-out regulations, all functions must end at 10 o'clock.

amendments make provisions for council control over all student elections and fix limitations on students seeking office.

The new amendments to the constitution read as follows:

Art II, Duties of the Student Council.

Art II, Section A, Part 1. The Student Council shall promulgate rules governing class and Student Council elections.

Art II, Section A, Part 2. The Student Council shall promulgate rules requiring all activities to file such reports as the Council may request.

Art 55, Section C. The Council shall direct the orientation and organization of freshmen.

Art II, Sec. D. The Council shall maintain a public record of the activities calendar.

Art II, Sec. L. The Council shall by October 15 of each year advise all activities and publish in The Hatchet a list of closed nights. Nights shall be closed at the discretion of the Council for the staging of all-University student functions. No other organization may hold meetings or parties on a closed night. Changes in or additions to the schedule may be made by the Council after giving a month's public notice.

University Red Cross Drive Surpasses Goal by $231.65

• EXCEEDING ITS goal of $500 by $231.65, the University Red Cross Drive, which featured intersorority competition and a benefit bridge tournament, ended April 1 when the citywide closed. Any organization desiring to make further contributions, however, may mail their checks to Anne Peterson at Strong Hall.

Intersorority competition closed at the March 23 Buff and Blue with the presentation to Phi Sigma Sigma sorority of a certificate in lieu of the Red Cross plaque which could not be obtained because of the war. The Phi Sigma Sigma collected $156.25.

Eliza Shumaker, a medical student, won the $5.00 first prize of the Hatchet Bridge Tournament held on Strong Hall roof March 28. Second place winner was H. K. Howerton who turned his $2.50 winnings back to the Red Cross. Kay Shanahan, another med student, won the booby prize—a package of cigarettes.

Runners-up in the intersorority competition were Pi Beta Phi with collections amounting to $138.00 and Chi Omega with $60.00. Delta Zeta followed in fourth place with $43.00.

Largest single contributor to the Drive was Pan Hellenic Council whose president, Gene Snyder, presented a check for $200.00 to Anne Peterson, Student Council victory service drives chairman.

Final results of the city drive will be made Thursday at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. The University shared with the city its honor in surpassing all previously set goals.

Admissions Office Releases Bulletin Of Summer School

• BULLETIN NO. 1 of the Summer Sessions is now available in the Admissions Office for those students interested in attending summer school at the University. In the bulletin are found courses offered as well as schedules for these courses.

Included in the summer sessions will be two six week semesters beginning June 4 and ending September 25. Registration for the first session begins May 7 and continues through June 4.

Dean of Education, James Harold Fox, said that the special six weeks session for the School of Education will be given from July 2 through August 10.

Students desiring to take subjects not announced in the summer catalog should turn in to the Dean of their College a request that the subjects "be offered, together with a suggested hours for the courses. Henry Gratton Doyle, dean of the Columbia College revealed this week.

April 1	Kappa Delta
April 8	Kappa Kappa Gamma
April 15	Alpha Delta Pi
April 22	Phi Mu
April 29	Chi Omega

The other five sororities, Pi Phi, Phi Sigma Sigma, Sigma Kappa, Delta Zeta and Zeta Tau Alpha, will sponsor bandage rolling either during the month of May or one of the above weeks. Although this activity is being sponsored by the sororities, everyone is urged to participate.

Coeditors Compile Weekly Activities; Released April 2

• DARHL FOREMAN and Dorothy Wolf, co-editors of the new activity list which will eventually grow into a University Gazette, request various campus organizations to submit their weekly schedules before each Thursday to guarantee publication in the following week's edition.

Any club wishing to make a change in its report may contact Darhl Foreman at Strong Hall.

Large activity calendars, previously maintained in Columbian House, the Student Club, and Building D will be continued.

The idea for an activity guide was conceived to coordinate faculty and student activities. Alumni Secretary Smith reported, due to a lack of administrative help necessary to compile the faculty report.

Profs Honored

• MORTAR BOARD will hold an Apple Polishing Luncheon on April 4, 12:30 p.m., in Columbian House. Professors of history, economics and political science will be the guests. All students are invited to meet their professors informally at this luncheon.

Blossoms Sale Starts Tomorrow

Winning Sorority Will Receive Cup At Pan-Hel Prom

THIS YEAR'S Cherry Blossom campaign at the University will start tomorrow and continue on Thursday and Friday, April 12 and 13. The drive is a nation-wide campaign sponsored by the Educational Foundation of the National League of Masonic Clubs to provide foreign service scholarships for this University's School of Government.

Sororities will sell cherry blossoms of paper made by disabled veterans of World War I and provided by the local Masonic organization for at least ten cents each.

"Remember! There is a price floor of ten cents for each blossom, but there is no ceiling price!"

The sorority collecting the most money from the sale will receive a silver cup at the Pan Hellenic Dance Saturday evening, April 14, and may keep the prize until the next drive. Any sorority which is victor for three successive years keeps the cup permanently. Second and third place winners will receive five silver dollars and three silver dollars, respectively.

Blossoms are available in Building C, Room 105. Money collected is to be turned in at the Cashier's Office in Corcoran Hall—in bills, if possible.

Coins are to be wrapped in the papers provided, or sealed in envelopes with the amount clearly marked on the outside. The Cashier's Office will issue receipts for the money turned in. These receipts are to be turned in to Mary Bagby, director of the drive, in C-105 on Friday afternoon, April 13, from 12:30 to 6 p.m.

Returns (money and/or receipts) from Friday evening sales are to be placed, plainly marked, in the roller safe or night depository outside the Cashier's Office in Corcoran Hall before 9 a.m. Saturday.

Last year, 7,000 cherry blossoms were sold and $700 was collected. There are at least that many blossoms for sale this year.

Campbell to Open Spring Fellowship For Nine Groups

ANNUAL SPRING Fellowship of the Council of Religious Organizations will be held tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. in Columbian House. Mary Ring Young, president of Wesley Club and acting president of the Council, will preside.

Guest speaker of the evening will be Mr. Joseph Campbell. Mr. Campbell is well-known throughout the East for his extensive collection of vocal records, which is reported to be one of the best in the country. These records will form the basis of his talk.

Participating in the Fellowship will be Council representatives from Baptist Student Union, Canterbury Club, Christian Science Organization, Hillel Council, Lutheran Club, Newman Club, Wesley Club, and Westminster Foundation.

The Fellowship will include entertainment in the form of Palestinian dances by members of Hillel Council. Refreshments and devotions will complete the program. The devotions will be conducted by Dr. Elwyn Smith, advisor of the Westminster Foundation.

Qualifications Committee Votes Approval Of Eighteen Student Council Office-Seekers

Seven Members Pass Candidates At Second Meeting

FOR THE SECOND time a Qualifications Committee met last Wednesday night to pass upon records and credentials of candidates for the coming Student Council elections, April 18, 19, and 20.

This time all of the 19 office-seekers were found qualified except Mary Ogden, who was put in as an alternate for the position of Advocate on the Progressive ticket.

Seven of the 12 presidents and secretaries composing the Committee, as required in the Constitution, made the final decision. Voting by show of hands were Stuart Beatson, president and Dick Steadman, secretary of Interfraternity Council; Phyllis Rosenberg, secretary of Pan Hel; Tony Prichard, President, and Jimmy Huddleston, secretary of ODK; Betty June Karle, secretary of Mortar Board; and George Kilpatrick, president of Engineer's Council. Also present were Dick Generally, reading qualifications for the Progressive Party; Lois Smith, reading for the Allied Party, and the Board of Editors of the Hatchet.

The Committee gave a clean bill of health to the whole allied slate, Larry Strickland, Independent, for Advocate, and all but one of the Progressive ticket. Following the withdrawal of Stuart Beatson, Mary Ogden was put up as Progressive alternate for the position of Advocate, but was found lacking in the proper qualifications for the position.

The Progressive alternate for Advocate, as yet unnamed, will be considered by the Committee at a brief meeting tomorrow evening in D-301 from 8:05 to 8:15. Chairman Jimmy Huddleston urged all qualified members to be present.

The first meeting of the Committee was declared unconstitutional by its chairman, Jimmy Huddleston, on the basis that six of the eight persons present were alternates for the actual members. The Constitution as interpreted by Dr. Burnice H. Jarman, member of the Student Life Committee, requires that the actual presidents and secretaries of the campus organizations which compose the Committee must be present.

Committee, which met March 28, voted to qualify the complete Progressive slate, but found Herbert Halberstadt and Dolores Lancaster of the Allied Party unqualified.

Since the only officer qualified to vote under the interpretation at this meeting was George Kilpatrick of the Engineer's Council, their ruling on qualifications was discharged at last week's meeting.

Voting alternates at the unconstitutional meeting were William Dorsey and James Fitzsimmons of the Student Bar Association; Chuck Daugherty and Lee Paige of ODK; George Conrad of Engineer's Council; Mary Ring Young of Mortar Board and Dick Generally of Interfraternity Council. Mary Webster represented the Progressives while Alice Rebert, the Allied, Bertie Stamm acted as teller in the secret voting.

Chairman Huddleston did not vote at this meeting and assumed the responsibility as Advocate for the misinterpretation of the Constitution.

Orchesis Will Dance In Lisner

Modern, Junior Groups Perform Nine Numbers

DANCING RECITAL by the University modern dance group, Orchesis, and the Junior Dance Groups, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Burtner, Women's Physical Education instructor, will be given Friday, April 13, at Lisner Auditorium at 8:30 p.m.

The program will consist of nine different dance compositions, several of which have never been shown before. "Primitive Dance," included in the repertoire, is one of the new numbers, and is based on a short story by Frances Gillmore entitled, "Spread His Sheepskins Smooth."

The tale is a love story of an Indian maid and boy of the same Navajo Indian clan who had been sent away to the white man's school for several years. Upon returning to their tribe, they wish to marry, but it is the unwritten law of the tribe that members cannot marry within the same clan.

And so the Indian maid, against her heart's desire, is true to the tribal custom, and her decision to take a mate selected for her from another clan is celebrated with ritual.

Irene Martin takes the part of the Indian maid; Jack Sweeney, the Indian boy; and Barbara Lydane, the Matriarch of the tribe.

"Witchcraft," another new outstanding number that will be presented Friday night, is based on the delusion of witchcraft which had its crisis at Salem, Mass., in 1692. This dance is part of the Americana series on the program, which also includes "End of a Day of Cotton Pickin'" featuring the melodies of Stephen Foster, and "Square Dance Tonight."

The music for "Primitive Dance" and "Witchcraft" was composed by Everett Stevens, young American composer, who received scholarships in piano and composition at the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore and Juilliard Graduate School in New York. Mr. Stevens has studied piano under Austin Conrad and Ernest Hutcheson, and composition under Gustav Sturbe and Bernard Wagenaar.

Season Ticket Holders Mail Orders Now

TICKETS FOR "Elizabeth the Queen," Cue and Curtain's final production of the season may be secured prior to the opening of the auditorium box office by mailing either season ticket stubs 3 and 4 or check or money order to "Cue and Curtain, the George Washington University, 21st and H Sts., N.W.," specifying seats desired.

Reservations will be taken by mail for those desiring to pick up tickets before opening night, the business office advised. The spokesman added that all students desiring to see the show make their purchases of seats as soon as possible because of the expected large attendance.

"Elizabeth the Queen" will be the first show to run two performances in the new auditorium. The production will be presented on Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28, at 8:40 p.m. in Lisner Auditorium.

According to authoritative sources, "Elizabeth the Queen" is one of Maxwell Anderson's finest plays and offers many opportunities for non-professional presentation. Very few college theater groups have presented this play because the costume and production costs are too great for small theater presentation.

The size and capacity of the University theater makes it possible for the local drama group to offer this excellent play.

Lt. Sokol Killed

MARINE LIEUTENANT Leonard Sokol, 24, former University star athlete, was killed in action on Iwo Jima, March 3. Sokol entered the University in 1940 and gained fame in basketball and on the diamond for the Colonials.

Sokol joined the Marine Reserve in 1942, was called to active service in August 1943, and went overseas a year later. After receiving his commission in March 1944, he was stationed at Parris Island, S. C., and Camp Pendleton, Calif., before leaving the country.

Buff 'n Blue To Announce New Council

FINAL BUFF and Blue of the year is scheduled for Friday evening, April 20, from 8:45 to 11:45 in the Student Club.

Chief attraction of this affair will be the announcement of the results of the Student Council elections which will be held April 18, 19, and 20.

Another all-student floor show is being planned. Those with talent interested in appearing on the program are urged to get in touch with Co-Directors Mary Jane Whitteley and Joe Vivari, and to report to the drawing room of Strong Hall Wednesday evening at 8:15 p.m. for auditions.

Tickets for the dance will soon go on sale in the Student Club; they may also be obtained from members of the Student Council and Council ticket representatives in the various fraternities. Price of admission, tax included, is $1.20 per couple.

WAA Planning Spring Banquet On April 26

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC Association announces its Spring banquet to be held Thursday, April 26, at 6:15 p.m. in the E Street YWCA building. Mollie Edwards is in charge of the banquet.

Guest speaker for the gala affair will be Mrs. Raymond Clapper, wife of the late noted journalist Raymond Clapper, who died in a plane crash while covering the Marshall Islands invasion. Clapper was the sixteenth war correspondent to meet his death in World War II.

Mrs. Clapper, nationally-known lecturer, will speak on the subject, "Behind the Scenes in Washington."

Tickets for the dinner are now on sale and may be purchased for $1.25 from WAA board members.

Spring Festival Offers Dancing, Games On Campus for May Day Celebration

CLIMAXING AN AFTERNOON and evening of entertainment will be the assembly on Lisner Terrace Friday, May 4, to end the Student Council Spring Festival followed by dancing on the Terrace, with dart throwing, penny pitching, bingo, and other amusements also being offered.

Martin Announces Plans for Contest

F. MERVIN MARTIN, manager of the All-University Speech Contest, announced that the contest will be held in the Hall of Government, Room 102, on April 17 at 8 p.m.

Speeches are to be of the persuasive type on some contemporary problem, and must not be more than 5 minutes in length.

Speech outlines must be delivered by April 11 to Dr. Willard Hayes Yeager's office in the basement of Lisner Auditorium.

In previous years, the contest was sponsored by Harry Cassell Davis, University alumnus. It has been continued by popular request. Prizes are a $25 war bond and two loving cups, all contributed by campus organizations.

Tapping of new members by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, will highlight the close of the evening's entertainment.

Plans for the day have been completed, Lois Smith, Student Council president, announced. The program will start with a tour of the University buildings for visiting high school seniors under the sponsorship of Mortar Board. At 5 P.M., the visitors will assemble in the auditorium for an address by Christopher B. Garnett, dean of the Junior College.

This assembly will be under the direction of Anne Thaler, Student Council freshman director, and will conclude with scenes from Cue and Curtain's production, "Elizabeth the Queen," and a repetition of their contest songs by the winners of the recent All-University sing.

Supper will be served at 6 p.m. in the Student Club and will be followed at 7:30 by the May Day Ceremony on the terrace. May (See SPRING FESTIVAL, Page 3)

Locked Out

• WE NOTE, WITH UPRAISED eyebrow and sardonic smile, that our good friends who are responsible for the efficient administration of this University are at it again. They, who have the authority to make the out-of-class hours of the student body comfortable or ill-at-ease, have once again reverted to type and have taken action without warning and without first typing to solicit the aid of the student body.

The Business Manager has closed the lounge in Columbian House to all students, except for meeting purposes.

According to the information we received, the lounge was closed because too many students were cluttering up the place with lunch left-overs, making too much noise, pounding on the piano, and just acting as irresponsible as they could be. Furniture was moved, pillow fights were held, and late bridge games became the vogue.

Moreover, though this was not mentioned, the lounge had become a "smoochin' spot" for uninhibited couples.

All these are good and sufficient reasons for closing the lounge.

But not without first going to the Student Council and asking them to try to do something about it. Not without first coming to us and asking us to print a warning to these unthinking students. Not without first posting a notice on the front door informing the offenders of the action to be taken if they did not desist.

No one should know better than the Business Manager, how crowded our facilities are. He, above all others, should be strikingly aware that this University could never handle the 6,000 enrolled students unless it made multiple use of its classrooms. The monetary salvation of this University has been its ability and desire to use the same classrooms for morning, afternoon, and evening classes.

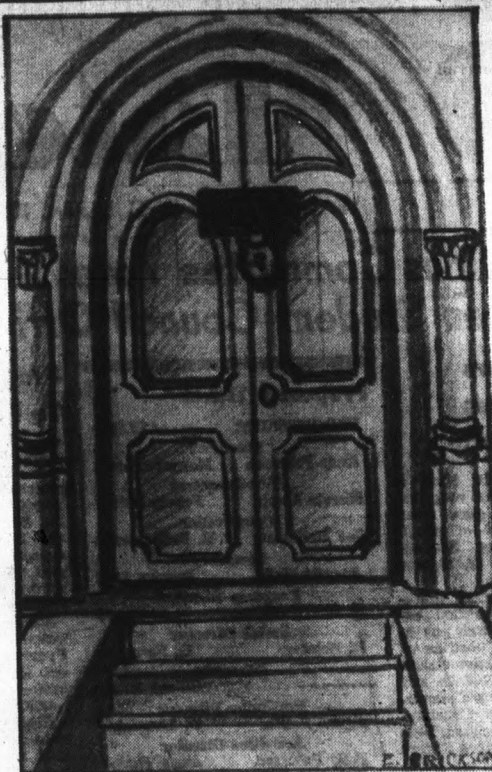

Does this not apply to lounge facilities, as well?

Isn't it true that outside of the student club, there is now absolutely no place for a student to go and relax. No place in this entire University for a student to sit down on a sofa, or a big, soft chair. No place with rugs, or pictures, or good lighting, or a semblance of quiet and peace.

Shouldn't the University attempt to provide some such place, or if unable to, then shouldn't it make every effort to see that what meager facilities we do have are kept open and available for use by the students?

We certainly think so.

And so, we ask you, Mr. Business Manager to reconsider your decision. We ask you to reopen Columbian House with the following provisions: (1) That there be a notice placed on the door informing the students the place will be kept open only so long as it remains clean and orderly, and (2) That use be made of the University messengers and guards to insure proper policing, by having them drop in every once in a while to see that the boys don't get to boisterous or the girls too girlstuous.

Timely Topics

• THOSE STUDENT-ADMINISTRATION conferences that we went overboard for, really started out with a bang. To date the subjects discussed have included teaching of religion, teaching of drama, return of sports, and establishment of a department of sociology. But for the last month there have been no meetings. This is not a fault to be corrected, but rather merely a matter of finding enough time in the daily schedules of the student leaders, faculty, and Administration officers to allow these conferences to continue.

We have requested that they be held any other night except Monday. It is impossible for us to be down at the plant putting this paper out and at the meetings too.

So far, we have heard no answer to our request. As we add them up, there should be a minimum of three more meetings this year. Pi Delta Epsilon has been hard at work, at the President's request, preparing basic data for a discussion on the propriety of reinstituting the Journalism Department. Having a very prejudiced viewpoint on this problem, we are naturally most anxious that this meeting be held.

Cue and Curtain's meeting on the teaching of drama, ended with the decision to hold a return engagement and go deeper into the question. The executive council of Cue and Curtain is ready now for another meeting. A few of the members have some very definite points and plans they should like to propose.

And finally, our own proposal, the Student Activity Fee should be discussed. The plan, if accepted, would affect every student at the University, and would benefit both students and extra-curricular activities.

Here again we have a prejudiced viewpoint, since it is our own proposal, the apple of our eye. But it is more than that. The results of the poll taken indicate that it is being taken to heart by 70% of the students polled. This should indicate that the proposal has some interest and some merit.

Let's get together and talk things over.

Ten Years Ago
—In the Hatchet

• "BRIDE OF THE INCAS" was opening a three-day stand at Roosevelt High auditorium. This was the first production of the rejuvenated Troubadours, now under the direction of Estelle Wentworth and Sam Detweiler.

Floyd L. Sparks, 'Sparky' to all, was elected production manager of Cue and Curtain for the rest of the year. P. S. He is still that, and a couple of other things besides.

Feminine debaters of the University were to try to outtalk the women's debate team from West Virginia University on March 26.

In a talk to the Freshman class, Dean Doyle said that a professor's job was to present problems before students so as to make them think. He said too many professors presented merely facts and expected the students to throw them back like a parrot.

James Charrier

• IN JAMES WILLIAM CHARRIER fraternities, in general, and Sigma Chi, in particular, have found one of their greatest supporters on the campus.

Jim hails from Boise, Idaho. He entered the University in the fall of 1940 as a night student; after two semesters he then attended the University of Washington for two years. Immediately upon his return to school here for the autumn term in 1943, he took over the direction of Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Chi; for three straight terms he remained in office as chapter president while also serving as secretary of the Interfraternity Council and Council delegate from Sigma Chi. During the current semester he is acting as fraternity treasurer.

Cue and Curtain, Delta Phi Epsilon (professional foreign service fraternity), campus politics, and the Student Council are the other activities which have taken up Jim's time. This semester, he is president of Delta Phi Ep and Comptroller on the Student Council. Sports, particularly tennis, are one of Brother Charrier's loves. A tricky back in football and a cagey shot in basketball, his abilities have often been proved in Intramural games. Quiet, thoughtful, and efficient, Jim finds people (especially one pretty Chi Omega) the most interesting thing in the world. After his graduation in June from the School of Government with a major in Foreign Commerce, he hopes to be dealing with people from all over the world as an employee of some private international trading company. Jim's one dislike (as his fraternity brothers well know) is getting up in the morning!!!

Dramatists Meet

• GERRY LOCK, President of Cue and Curtain, advises that there will be a regular meeting of the group on Wednesday, April 11, in Government 101. All members are urged to attend.

At this meeting the final production of the season, "Elizabeth the Queen" will be discussed and work projects for this production will be assigned within the group.

After the meeting tryouts for the forthcoming Workshop Plays will be held. The directors for these plays will be Emma Massa, Ginny Nalls and Mervin Martin.

Panhel to Hold Annual Spring Ball At Shoreham Hotel

• PANHELLENIC'S annual spring formal will be held in the ballroom of the Shoreham Hotel from 8:45 to 11:45 on Saturday night, April 14, with music by Jack Morton's Orchestra.

During intermission scholarship awards will be presented and honoraries will be tapped for Delphi, Jane Lingo, social chairman of Panhellenic, announced.

The social chairman of each individual sorority will be responsible for arranging dates. The Panhellenic date bureau which provided Army and Navy officers as escorts last year has not been revived.

Orchesis

Mr. Stevens also has composed the music for two other studies, "Waiting for a Bus," and "A False Rumor." At present he is the accompanist for the University dance classes and Orchesis, the dance group.

The University General Alumni Association is the sponsor of the dance recital to be given by Orchesis and the Junior Dance Groups, and the performance is open to the general public without charge.

Spring Festival

(Continued from Page 1) Day Queen, to be elected by student vote, will be crowned; Orchesis has planned a May Pole Dance; and there will be selections by the Glee Clubs.

The remainder of the evening will be devoted to dancing and playing among the various booths on the terrace. Tickets for all activities will be ten cents. All proceeds will go to the Red Cross. Lois Smith asked that anyone knowing the names of any high school seniors he would like to have invited by the Council should submit that name to the Freshman Director of the Student Council immediately.

President Addresses Chi Omega

• THE UNIVERSITY'S Chi Omega sorority celebrated its founding at the University of Arkansas in 1895—50 years ago—at a dinner in the Federal Room of the Statler Hotel Saturday evening. Active and alumnae residing in Washington and the vicinity participated.

Speakers for the evening included the President of the University, Dr. C. H. Marvin; the Dean of University Students, Dean E. L. Kayser; and vice-principal of Woodrow Wilson High School, Dr. Estelle S. Phillips. Toastmistress was Mrs. Oliver T. Griswold, chairman of the arrangements committee.

Dean Kayser spoke on the development of the University including Chi Omega's participation. President Marvin stated in part that the sorority had a potentially great future which would and could develop along with the expanding University.

He concluded his address with a survey of planned University expansion.

Dr. Phillips spoke on "Fifty Years of Chi Omega" outlining the achievements of the sorority in the field of women's affairs since its founding, and its growth to the current total of 98 chapters.

The alumnae presented Rene Honey, past-president, with the Alumnae Association Plaque awarded to the outstanding active of Phi Alpha Chapter on the basis of scholastic, activities, and sorority records. Outstanding pledge award went to Jean Casanova.

Senior Classmen Urged to Pay Dues

• MARY BETH SHEPHERD, secretary of the Senior Class, urges all seniors to pay class dues and fee for senior dinner as soon as possible. The dinner is $2.50 a plate and class dues are 50 cents a person.

The booth for banquet tickets will be open not only Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12 to 12:30 p.m. and 5:30 to 6 p.m. next week, but also at these same hours the following week.

The Senior Class will produce its own entertainment for the banquet, to be held May 29, 6:15, at the Roger Smith Hotel. Seniors will go after the banquet to Award Night at the University, which is open to all University students. All the seniors should be present at this school event, Miss Shepherd adds.

McCloud to Speak

• ANNUAL AUTHORIZED lecture sponsored by the Christian Science Organization will be given Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the School of Government.

Mr. Earl McCloud, C. S. B., of San Antonio, Texas, member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts, will give as his subject "Christian Science: Its Restorative Mission." Norene Burnette, reader of the organization, will introduce Mr. McCloud. Faculty members and students have been invited to attend.

KKG, Sig Chi Take Honors In All-U Sing

• KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA and Sigma Chi reigned victorious in this year's All-University Sing, held last Friday night, in Lisner Auditorium.

Masterful rendition of "Kappa Dream Girl" and "Zigeuner" under the baton of Valerie Papis, entitled the Kappa's to first place among the eight competing sororities and to one of the twin cups, presented by Alice Rebert, social chairman of Student Council.

Chi Omega, assisted by Tommy Haynes and singing "Chi-O Lullaby" and "Siboney", won second place. ADPI with Mary Beth Shepherd conducting "ADPI Sweetheart Song" and "Begin the Beguine," came in third among the women's groups.

Sigma Chi, under the direction of George Bishop, triumphed over the only other competing male group, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, to win the brother twin cup; they sang "Here's to Our Fraternity" and "I'll Be Seeing You."

Judges gave Phi Sigma Sigma honorable mention for the originality of their song based on the score from "H. M. S. Pinafore." Hillel Foundation, the only mixed group participating, though not competing, also received high praise.

Judges for the affair were Chester Elwood Leese and John Russell Mason of the University Committee on Musical Organizations, and Justin Laurie, famous choir director at the Foundry Methodist Church.

Other groups participating were: Delta Zeta, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Zeta Tau Alpha, and the Glee Club.

Frat Men Celebrate With Dance

Phi Sigs Win Cup For Basketball; Sigs Get Football Cup

• THURSDAY NIGHT, April 5, was "celebration night" for fraternity men of the University fortunate enough to remain on campus. The Continental Room of the Wardman Park Hotel was the scene of their annual Interfraternity Council Ball.

Joe Vivari, social chairman of the council and representative from Phi Sigma Kappa, introduced Stuart Beatson of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and president of the Interfraternity Council, during the intermission. Cups were then awarded to Phi Sigma Kappa for prowess in basketball and to Sigma Chi for its undefeated, untied interfraternity football team. Interfraternity Council delegates from the other fraternities in the organization were also introduced.

Bob Montgomery's orchestra, a Jack Morton unit, furnished music for the dance, which lasted from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

IFC is composed of delegates from the fraternities on the campus which have remained active in spite of war-time difficulties. At present there are eight groups: Sigma Chi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha, Theta Delta Chi, Kappa Alpha, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Acacia. The council sponsors interfraternity competition in all major sports and sponsors an annual Interfraternity Council Ball.

Ralph Goes South

• MARIE LOUISE RALPH, '44, has been appointed assistant cultural attache at the United States Embassy in Managua, Nicaragua. She was one of three women to pass the State Department requirements for admission to the Foreign Service Auxiliary for duration service.

Miss Ralph was 1944's president of Phi Pi Epsilon, women's foreign service sorority, and the International Students Society.

Ref Charlie Reynolds Will Officiate Matches At Annual Ring Show

Bouts to Crown Twelve University Boxing Champions

By BARRY KREISBERG

APRIL 17, AT 8:30 p.m., the University gym will be turned into a huge boxing arena aglow with the glitter of big-time sports and bowing only to Madison Square Garden in its array of amateur talent. On tap for that night are 12 nip and tuck battles for an equal number of University boxing championships.

Along with the announcement of the pairings, George Lentz, University trainer and matchmaker, came out with the announcement that Charlie Reynolds, well-known referee and rated among the best in the country, will be the third man in the ring.

Good matches will be the rule in this year's fistfights. The young battlers have just finished 20 weeks of strenuous training. Those who are fighting Tuesday night are the survivors of an elimination contest which numbered 50 men.

The 24 men to reach the finals will all receive an award, the winners getting gold gloves, and the losers receiving silver ones. The boxer voted the most outstanding in the tournament will be awarded a gold trophy symbolizing his achievement.

All the bouts will prove interesting, if not exciting. Undoubtedly, the best fight of the evening will be between Jerrold Michael and W. Shepard. In the semis these battlers fought to a draw and at the conclusion of the fight Lentz announced that both boys would meet again in the finals.

Another good bout seems to be between Dick Roberts and Frank Richards. Roberts, one of last year's winners, will find no soft touch in his opponent and if he persists in his lackadaisical training he may find himself an ex-champ.

A bout that will rate with the best will pit Stan Levin against Ira Cohen for the 165-pound laurels. Levin, a former Golden Glover, will in all probability meet his match in his battle with the novice. Cohen's bruising body punches and heart seem to give him the nod over the ex-Glover. The Phys Ed Department was fortunate in again securing the services of the judges who handled last year's bouts, Dr. Burnice Jarman and Dean Elmer L. Kayser.

Figures Show Soph Quintet Leading Way

By GEORGE KRUGER

STATISTICS for the first round in the Intramural Basketball League were officially released by William Myers, director of Men's Physical Education, last week.

The report shows that the Medical Sophs are the winners of the first round with seven wins and two setbacks.

Other interesting records in the statistics showed that the best offensive team was the Med Sophs, as they scored 258 points against their opponents. On the other hand, the team to hold their opponents to a minimum of points was the Med Juniors, holding their victims to 131 points.

Total participation of players in the first round was given to the Med Juniors who had 21 men on their squad playing in the league. High scorer in the first round was Jack Millar, of the Med. Sophs who tallied 126 points in 9 games.

As the final phase of the second round is coming to an end, it seems as if the Med Sophs have again proven to be the outstanding team in the league. So far they are undefeated and only have one more game left to play in the second round. Even though they should lose the remaining game, they will still be on top as the second place team. Pharmacy School, has lost two games.

Since the Med Sophs will be winners of both of the rounds, they will not have to play another game for the championship. Now that the intramural championship has been decided, there is the Interfraternity basketball trophy to be given away. The rules as to the winning of the cup has not been decided as yet, but from games played between the fraternities thus far it will most likely be between Sigma Chi and Phi Sigma Kappa.

Pharmacy 'Strikes'

CONTINUING THEIR sensational bowling of two previous games Pharmacy School defeated Phi Alpha Fraternity, March 24, at the YMCA Bowling Alleys in three straight games for the University Bowling Championship.

Joe Glenn and Joe Giovacchini bowled a three-game average of 125 to lead their five-man team to a clean cut victory.

Girls' Tourney Set

BARBARA SAUBER, organizer of the Women's Tennis Tourney, announced last week that all women interested in competing for the University Doubles Championship, should sign the poster which will be on the bulletin board in Building H.

Baseball's '45 Debut On Sunday

6 Teams Entered In IM Competition For Championship

By MERVIN LEWS

LEADING OFF WITH three games next Sunday at the Ellipse, the Intramural Baseball League gets under way in a round robin playoff for the diamond trophy.

At the same time, the Medical School will start their eight-team league play with the winner to play the University champion for the All-University Championship.

The league at the University has been increased from four teams last year to six teams this season. The six teams include three fraternity teams which did not participate last year, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Chi and SAE. The other three teams are the Veterans Club, Pharmacy School and an Independent team which may be sponsored by the University Hatchet.

The schedule has not yet been arranged, but the Phys Ed Department has set the length of games at seven innings. Last year, the games only went five innings, and it was felt that the extra two innings would make for a better game.

Only one team has been taking the league seriously and that has been the Vets. They have been practicing and priming two and three times a week. The jump they have gotten on the other teams might be the difference between them and the rest of the league. Led by Laddie Reichwein, former varsity player here, they are loaded with plenty of power, though defensively they are still an unknown quantity.

On paper, the fight for the trophy looks like it will boil down into a struggle between the three non-fraternity teams, with Sigma Chi having an outside chance for first place honors.

Pharmacy has Joe Giovacchini, Stan Levin, Dan Snyder and John Pollock back from last year. This quartet, however, will prove ineffective without good pitching, which is something that Pharmacy definitely lacks.

As for the Independent team, they have a veteran infield combination which played last year, and a very effective pitcher in Barry Kreisberg. Where their base hits will come from is another question. With them it's the old story of "good field, no hit."

With approximately five Sundays to play ball, the league will probably see a short but successful season, if Old Man Weather is on their side.

Colonials to Remember . . .

By DAVE NOBES

OF ALL the definitions that have ever been written of a sportsman none is fit to describe this Colonial. Len Sokol not only gave his all in athletics but gave his life for his country in the greatest game of all on the beaches of Iwo Jima.

He entered George Washington in 1940, backed by a brilliant athletic record which he earned on the basketball and baseball teams of Central High School.

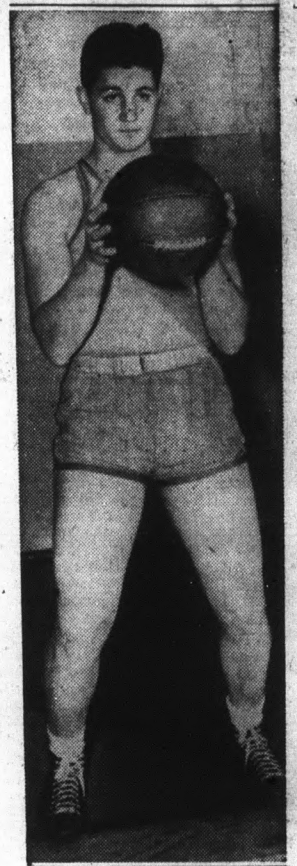

His athletic talents had been revealed previous to this time when in 1939 he entered and won the City of Washington Junior Tennis Championship. Seeded first at the start he showed superior form throughout the series and copped the title. Like a true athlete he lived, breathed, and ate sports, achieving local fame in sandlot ball.

At the University Len starred for the most part on the diamond. Since the baseball season conflicted with that of tennis he could not find time to compete with the University's tennis team.

Sokol held down the left field spot for two years, hitting .312 in the 1941 season and .244 in 1942. He was erratic at the plate, some days producing several circuit clouts, while on other's failing to get on base. In the field he always played brilliant defensive ball and his deadly throwing arm was respected and feared by all of the Buffmen's opponents.

In 1942 Len enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve, and in 1943 entered active service and received his commission. In the Pacific theater he led his battalion's ball team to an inter-island championship.

When news of his death reached this country many fond memories of his sporting career were recalled by those with whom he played. He has left a gaping hole in the sports picture which will be hard to fill.

Major Leaguers Still Want 'Laddie'

"LADDIE" STILL hasn't come home as far as a few major league baseball teams are concerned.

Terrence Reichwein, former University baseball star and navy discharge, is still undecided about joining the ranks of the "play for pay" boys before he graduates school. With only a few credits short of the necessary qualification for a degree Reichwein doesn't know whether to quit school or take his chances next year.

Three teams, the New York Yankees, Boston Red Sox, and the Detroit Tigers, are all vying for his services, but as yet none has received a definite answer.

Schwartz Honored

RAYMOND J. SCHWARTZ, former economics student at the University, has been made assistant chief of the Latin American division of the Pan American World Airways. In this capacity Mr. Schwartz will administer operations in more than 300 trade centers, involving new low-rate passenger and air cargo service.

COLLEGE FADS AND FANCIES, CLASS OF 1850

Fads and fancies in college costumes are by no means modern phenomena. Here is a gay undergraduate of the Class of 1850. Observe his flowing collar and tie, his super expanse of Panama brim, and his studied air of nonchalance.

This was in 1850, when America was basking in peace. The Golden West was opening up, and Express Service was keeping pace. Today, there are few fads and fancies on the college campus. They have given place to the uniformity and efficiencies of war time. Thousands of students are concentrated on the needs of the nation in arms.

Railway Express is devoting its nationwide services, both rail and air, primarily to speeding war material. To help all concerned, you can do three simple things with your 1945 home packages and baggage: Pack securely—address clearly and adequately—avoid abbreviating state names.
